m a i n m e n u

A place to call home, a place to belong,
feel welcome and create special memories.
This is our hope for Waterline Bar and Eatery.

Focusing on fresh, locally sourced produce with the intention to share in our relaxed waterside location.

Waterline's cooking centres around an intimate open kitchen and a welcoming sense of theatre.

Our cooking techniques touch on fermentation, smoking, curing, preserving, fire licked meats, seafood and vegetables.

This is a menu for getting together, for sharing . . . or maybe not!

There are also individually plated dishes that awaken the taste buds, bring a sense of relaxation – even if it's just an hour escape from work or a celebration for the occasions that need to be celebrated.

Private and semi private dining available.

We hope you Enjoy !

P i n o t N o i r

Northern Tasmania Tamar Valley, Pipers Brook, Northwest – Pinot noir from these areas tend to possess lighter red berry characteristics with fantastic structure and depth that usually finishes with a soft white pepper finish due to terroir.

Tamar Ridge	Tamar Valley, Tasmania	75
Alcorso	Multi Regional, Tasmania	85

Eastern Tasmania Freycinet Coast – Pinot noir from this area tend to have a mix of red berry and deeper dark fruit characteristics, producing a lighter complex style of wine. These pinots still have a large presence on the palate with structured acidity and rich minerality.

Milton	Cranbrook, Tasmania	75
Kelvedon Estate	East Coast, Tasmania	85
Apsley Gorge	East Coast, Tasmania	130

Southern Tasmania Coal River, Derwent River, Huon Valley – Pinot noir from these areas are classed as more full-bodied wines due to the volcanic soil structure. It is not uncommon to find characteristics of dark berries followed by a more spice driven finish with structured acidity and tannin.

Derwent Estate	Derwent Valley, Tasmania	90
